Web portal for real estate

You don't get a second chance to make a first impression, so make sure you choose a good profile picture. You can upload this under basic data in the menu. This is where you also add your contact details, job information, details about your visit to the trade fair, and which forums, etc. you plan to attend.

Specifying your sector, type of real estate, country/market and topics in the "I'm looking for/I can offer" section will give you more accurate recommendations, making your matchmaking much more effective.

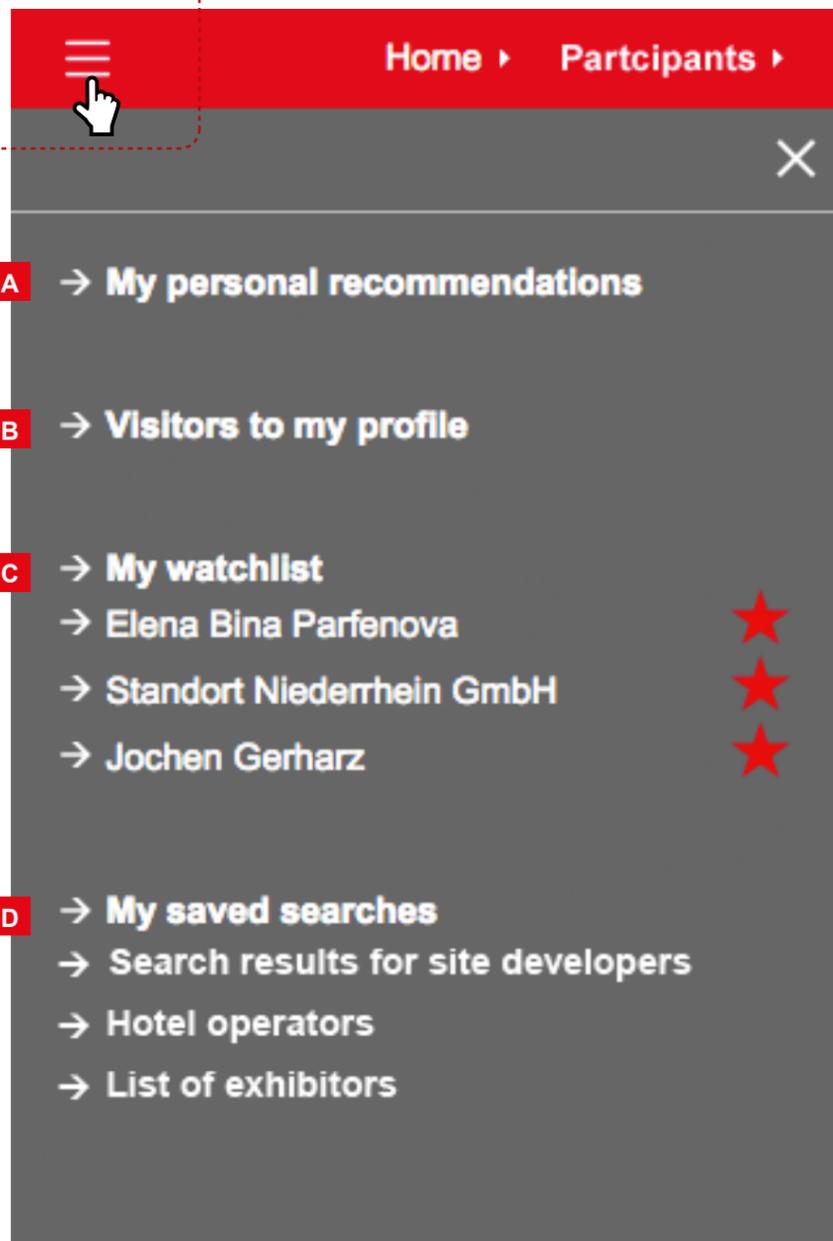

In the "Job offers/Job-wanted notices" section, you can advertise and search for jobs, and there is even the option to upload a PDF containing your job advert or CV.

Other MatchUp! Features

You can access the main MatchUp! features from your customized sidebar menu:

A → My personal recommendations

This section provides MatchUp! participants with lots of networking opportunities – you can contact potential business partners directly to arrange a meeting or ask them to call you back, add them to your short list, or save and print out specific profiles.

B → Visitors to my profile

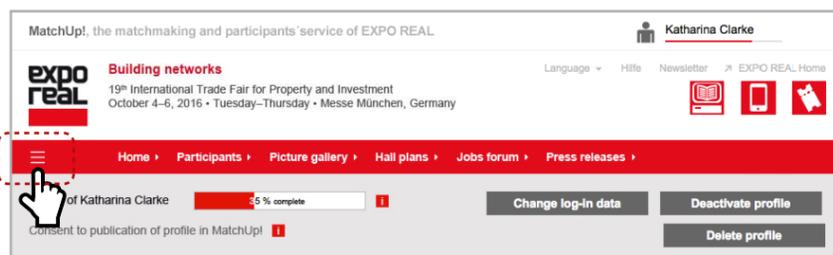

Make sure you check this section regularly, and if you find you share some common ground with someone who has visited your profile, get in touch with them. This has proven time and time again to be a successful way of making relevant business contacts.

C → My watchlist

The star icon is used to highlight trade fair participants you are interested in and to save them in a list. You can add notes for each contact in your personal watchlist, with the option to go back and view everything you have written at a later date.

D → My saved searches

Depending on your personal interests and goals for the trade fair, you can search for specific participants, areas, countries, and much more, and save these searches so you can be kept up to date with what's new in your network.

Important Hint

Even if you already have profiles on other networks, such as Xing or LinkedIn, MatchUp! is the only portal — not only in Germany but in the world — that is 100% focused on the real estate industry. Plus you know that all of the participants will be in attendance at the venue. In other words, MatchUp! is the key to your success at EXPO REAL.
