

IPC Hand Soldering Competition at productronica 2017 14–17 November

Who's the BEST of the BEST in HAND SOLDERING?

Once again IPC will be holding the European regional hand soldering competition at productronica 2017, from November 14 – 16, 2017. As an added feature the IPC HSC World Championship will be held on Friday morning, November 17. Along with the regional European productronica winner, representatives from Russia, Poland, United Kingdom, France, Hungary, Germany and Asia will be competing for the World Championship.

The regional competition will challenge the industry professionals to complete a functional assembly within 60 minutes, meeting IPC-A-610F Class 3 criteria. The speed and functionality of the assembly will be judged by IPC-A-610 Master Instructors.

Cash prizes will be presented to the winner and two runners-up for the regional European competition.

The winner will then compete on Friday, November 17 for the IPC HSC World Championship.

1st place – €300; 2nd place – €200; 3rd place – €100
